DEPARTMENT OF BENGALI
4TH SEMESTER HONOURS

SESSION :2022-2023

PROJECT PAPER: SEC-2

Introduction:

The Vidyasagar University's undergraduate curriculum follows the CBCS pattern and requires project-based papers. Students in the Bengali department are concentrating on two subject-oriented projects for the skill development course (SEC-2) during their fourth semester.

Objectives:

- To give an idea for composing a fundamental research paper.
- To provide an understanding of the structure and focus of a literature review.
- To give an idea about the case study research methodology genre.
- To provide awareness of contemporary literary and cultural trends.
- Give an idea to explore fresh avenues in the literary culture sphere.

Methodology:

- For literature project articles, comparative and text analysis techniques have been applied.
- The field survey method has mainly been used for linguistic and cultural studies in Jangalmahal.

Conclusion:

The university-mandated SEC-2 paper will set the framework for the students' future study. Additionally, it will enhance their own writing abilities. Students will become more curious about exploring new things and pursuing research through fieldwork-based learning, as instead of monotonous theoretical courses.

JHARGRAM RAJ COLLEGE (GIRLS' WING)
(AFFILIATED TO VIDYASAGAR UNIVERSITY)

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
6TH SEMESTER HONOURS

SESSION 2022-2023

Fieldwork and Dissertation (Paper DSE 4)

Introduction:

The Vidyasagar University's undergraduate curriculum follows the CBCS pattern that requires project-based papers. Students in the Sociology department are required to undertake project work for the paper DSE 4 (fieldwork and dissertation) during their sixth semester.

Objectives:

- To introduce students to research methodology
- To make them acquainted with the research design
- To provide an understanding of the structure of the literature review
- Make them familiar with various research techniques and tools
- To introduce them to first-hand experiences in data collection and data analysis
- To discover new facts and problematizing various socio-cultural scenarios

Methodology:

- Survey method has mainly been used as a tool for collecting data

Outcome:

- The present course will enhance research skills, introduce students to basic tools and techniques, help them gain first-hand experience in the field, interact with people, establish rapport, and develop new concepts.

SESSION 2022-2023

PROJECT PAPER: SEC-4

Introduction:

The Vidyasagar University's undergraduate curriculum follows the CBCS pattern and requires project-based papers. Students in the Bengali department are concentrating on two subject-oriented projects for the skill development course (SEC-4) during their fourth semester.

Objectives:

- To give an idea for composing a fundamental research paper.
- To provide an understanding of the structure and focus of a literature review.
- To give an idea about the case study research methodology genre.
- To provide awareness of contemporary literary and cultural trends.
- Give an idea to explore fresh avenues in the literary culture sphere.

Methodology:

- For literature project articles, comparative and text analysis techniques have been applied.
- The field survey method has mainly been used for linguistic and cultural studies in Jangalmahal.

Conclusion:

The university-mandated SEC-4 paper will set the framework for the students' future study. Additionally, it will enhance their own writing abilities. Students will become more curious about exploring new things and pursuing research through fieldwork-based learning, as instead of monotonous theoretical courses.
